

JEEP, ATV, MOTORCYCLE TRAILS

United States Department of Agriculture
Forest Services, Carson National Forest
Questa Ranger District

Roads and Trails in the Questa Ranger District Open To Jeeps, ATV's and Motorcycles

ROADS / TRAILS...

Cabresto Canyon –from HWY 38 in Questa, turn off on 563 which turns into Forest Road 134. Provides access to Greenie Peak and several non-working mines.

Cabresto Lake Road- approximately 7 miles up the Cabresto Canyon road. Turn off the Forest Road 134A for 2 miles on primitive road to the lake.

4th of July Canyon- Travel 4 miles from Red River on Hwy 578 in the Upper Red River Valley, turn left on Forest Road 490.
VERY RUGGED!

Garrapata Ridge – 5 miles south of Questa. Approximately 6 miles loop that connects with Forest Road 9, which leads to Cebolla Mesa

Goose Lake Travel ½ mile on Hwy 578 towards the Upper Red River Valley, turn right on Forest Road 486 and cross river. Approximately 8 miles to the lake on the 4WD Road.

Largo Lake- 1.3 miles from Questa Ranger Station on Old Taos HWY. Travel 3 miles on National Forest land to private land, continue for 4 miles through Lama to HWY 22.

Mallette Canyon- 1 mile up Mallette Road between Sitzmark Sports and the Mining Company liquor store.
Access to Greenie Peak & Midnight Meadows Area – see map

Old Red River Pass – Travel 1 mile on Hwy 578 towards the Upper Red River Valley, turn left on Forest Road 487.

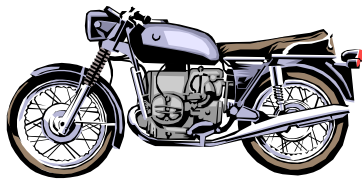

Pioneer Creek- accessible by Red River Ski Area road. Turn right onto road at NE end of ski area parking lot. Sign indicating turnoff is across the creek. See map for locations of old mines.

Cerro Negro – travel 2 miles on road to Lawrence Ranch to Forest Road 7B. 5-mile loop.

Trail Canyon- turnoff is approximately 1½ miles up Mallette Canyon. Intersects Cabresto Canyon Road after 10 miles.

Pioneer and Elephant Rock Motorcycle Loops scheduled to re-open Spring 2008.

TREAD LIGHTLY BY....

T raveling lightly on the land
R especting others rights
E ducation yourself
A voiding animals and easily damaged area
D riving responsibly

Maps are available at the Red River Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center and at the Questa Ranger Station, two miles east of Questa on Hwy 38.